Council Reports

The regular meeting of the Council was held June 10th. The Council members shared their prayer concerns: Care for those in need of healing: John Williams, Chris Goodrich, Bobby Heesacker, Pastor Liz Conner, her daughter, Wendy, and her granddaughter, Penelope; care for those within the Grace family that they continue to heal; we pray for Ambrose who is continuing to gain strength; we pray for Ivo's safety; we pray for all the victims involved in the plane crash in Khartoum; we pray for all who have lost loved ones and that they remain both hopeful and faithful; we pray for an end to all of the unrest and conflict in the world. Pastor led devotions from Deuteronomy 8:10 and 1 Timothy 4:3; we are invited to read God's word and praise God for all the things in life.

Visions for Ministry: The Council is reading "Effective Small Churches in the Twenty-first Century" by Carl S. Dudley. Please read Chapter 5 "Memory and Ministry" and work on the exercises in the book by the next meeting.

Reports were received from the Financial Secretary and the Treasurer. Please continue to give generously.

Christian Education: The mid-week Education class meeting was held on May 27th. The next meeting is scheduled on July 1st at 7:00 p.m.; please plan to attend if interested. Vacation Bible School planning meeting was held on June 5 and will continue for the next two Thursdays, June 12th and 19th. Vacation Bible School is scheduled during the week of June 23rd.

Evangelism/Outreach: Kids At Work first workday was held today, June 10th; it's always great to see the kids back at work.

Finance: Council ratified allocations in the report submitted by The Endowment Board. A new computer was purchased for the church office with undesignated memorial funds.

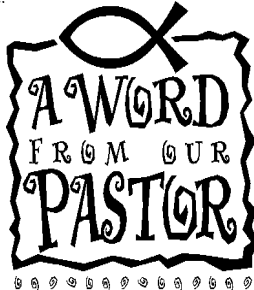

Property: Weather permitting, the parking lot will be repaired and resealed. Water leaked into the basement with the recent rainstorms. Cleanup has been completed. We express a big thank you to Bob Moss and Ken Hilmer for breaking up the old concrete pad for the air conditioning units and replacing it with dirt.

Service/Social Ministry: No new report.

Support/Stewardship: Council discussed a year round stewardship program that would provide a weekly quote for the bulletin as well as a temple talk.

Worship: World Refugee Day is June 21st; a special service is planned for the 22nd. The second lesson will be read in Mabaan and John Boato will share his story from childhood in Sudan, going through war, being forced to flee his home, life in the refugee camps and life in the United States. There will be a potluck lunch following the service, be sure to invite your friends.

“O give thanks to the LORD,” says the Psalmist in 106:1. I, too, wish to give thanks to the Lord. I wish to give thanks for all the work that has gone into making our “Power Lab” Vacation Bible School a wonderful success. I wish to give thanks for the wonderful joint worship experience with our Sudanese Fellowship. I wish to give thanks for those who have contributed to our special appeal for funds to support our internship project. I want to give thanks for the efforts underway to provide a mid-week learning experience for children, youth and adults. I want to give thanks for your prayers of support and care.

As I looked through the Psalms, I was struck by the many places where these words appear: “O give thanks to the Lord.” Sometimes the thanks were expressed for the bounty of the Lord. Sometimes the thanks were expressed for God’s corrective to waywardness. Sometimes the thanks were expressed for God’s action in saving the people from enemies real and perceived.

One of the first songs we have learned in Bible School is “Thankful.” The lyrics read like this:

I like to think about the goodness of the Lord.
He gives me everything I need, and so much more,
So I just wanna lift my hands and say that I love him!
I just wanna lift my heart in praise!
And I wanna be thankful!
I wanna be grateful!
I wanna remember everything that the Lord has done!
I wanna be thankful!
I wanna be grateful!
I wanna be!
I wanna be!
I wanna be!

It is a wonderful rephrasing of Psalm 92:1-4, which reads:

It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
to declare your steadfast love in the morning,
and your faithfulness by night,
to the music of the lute and the harp,
to the melody of the lyre.
For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work;
at the works of your hands I sing for joy.

I am thankful that God has given us this wonderful place to experience God’s love and care. I trust that as we share that love and care with others, they, too, will join in grateful thanks to God!

Council - Continued

Unfinished Business: A Lay Committee will need to meet once a month as part of Angela’s internship here at Grace. The committee will have a handbook which will help with an agenda. This will help round out Angela and Grace Lutheran Church’s experience during these 12 months. Pastor and Mary have been searching for housing for Angela and her family here in Omaha. Pastor will be attending a family reunion and Pastor Bob Johnson will be here June 15th.

New Business: We will meet for a brief time following the June 29th worship service to discuss something fun to welcome Angela on July 6th.

Announcements: Greg will bring treats for our July meeting.

New Christian Education Event

A taskforce has been working diligently to plan a new ministry effort for Christian Education. This is the result of the decline in Sunday morning Sunday School attendance. We are excited about the possibilities that God is opening before us. Pastor Conner and Cristo Rey Luterana plan to participate with us in this effort.

The new effort will take place on Wednesdays beginning August 20. A name is still being crafted to describe the effort. Some names that have been discussed are: Feeding Families in Faith, Fishing for Faith, Strengthening Families in our Neighborhood, Faith Quest, to name a few.

The time for this new effort will be 5:30-7:30 pm. We will begin with a light meal, followed by some singing and then breaking up into group centers. We will be using a model called "rotation." This model allows us the opportunity to spend four weeks on each story. Each week there be will opportunities to explore story in different ways: art, drama, music, bible study, etc.

Pray for this new ministry effort. Ask God to raise up those leaders that are needed, bless those planning with wisdom, energy and hopefulness. If you have children, put this on your calendar now! Come join the fun, experience faith development and find strength for living out your Christian calling.

Stewardship Minute

Monthly reflections on our role as managers of God's blessing.

"God Owns it All" is the chapter heading in a book by a Christian author who presents this chapter first as the foundation for money management and giving.

God does own it all! That is the teaching of Psalm 24:1 which says, "The earth is the Lord's." Psalm 50:10 says that all of the best of the field belong to God, and that cattle on a thousand hills are His. Haggai 2:8 says that God even owns the silver and gold in all the mines.

Now, He allows us to use what rightfully belongs to Him, but God continues to retain ownership. We are managers and stewards of what He has entrusted to us. Someday, when we stand before Him, we shall give an account of what kind of job we have done in managing the resources which He has allowed us to use.

That's why every spending decision becomes a spiritual decision. Every time we use some of God's money, we are making a decision which has eternal ramifications.

Are you using money and possessions as if they belong to you, or are you making spending decisions with the full realization that "God owns it all"?

First in a series from "Effective Stewardship" by Kenneth L. Williams.

Book Reviews

"Secrets"
and "Unforgotten" (Sequel)
By Kristen Heitzman

These books are a two-part excursion into the lives of a man and a woman, both emotionally wounded by things in the past. Their lives intersect when Rese Barrett, a talented woman renovator, buys a villa in Sonoma to renovate and run the villa as a bed and breakfast. Lance Michelli, a rogue who's relationship to God remains intact despite many trips in the wrong direction, learns that the villa actually belongs to his Italian family. The two find their way through many secrets that each has been guarding. As the story unfolds, a corpse is found in a secret cellar and questions arise about a years-old vendetta. "Secrets" takes place at the villa.

The sequel, "Unforgotten" moves to New York where Rese is introduced to Lance's enormous Italian family. Lance's grandmother holds the answers to the corpse in the cellar, who he was and who killed him but has suffered several debilitating strokes. Lance and Rese must navigate the difficulties of an old woman who cannot communicate, the codes of an old world "mafia" and how to resolve the issues of their personal lives with God's grace.

These books started a bit slow but picked up after several chapters. I enjoyed them! Check them out!

News from the Families of Grace Lutheran Church

- ♥ Thanks to all the folks who donated time and supplies to the Power Lab Vacation Bible School Program. Look for an update on what happened during VBS. (At this printing, the program is just getting started for the week!)
- ♥ Special thanks to John Boato for his part in Refugee Sunday on June 22nd. The Sunday morning service was filled with joyous multi-cultural music, the opportunity to hear John's personal story of surviving in Sudan during civil war and his family's journey to America, the baptism of Abigail Hegarty, great granddaughter of Eva Martin, and a wonderful time sharing together at a pot-luck featuring American and African food.
- ♥ Titus and Teresa Duli are preparing to find out what can be done about their son's physical difficulty with his arm. Papers are being sent to the Mayo Clinic to see what might be available for consideration. Titus is a lay leader among the Mabaan church worshipping here at Grace. Teresa was a student in our ESL for Sudanese Women program. Their son was born with damage done to his arm. Support will be needed to help with transportation costs and housing if they are eligible for medical care. Pray that the decision will come quickly from the medical institutions involved and that God would supply funds to sustain them if they have to go.
- ♥ The church office has received word that Sharon Irwin's nephew (Jeff Bridwell)'s house was destroyed by the tornado. His house was the second most damaged in the Millard area. Jeff and his family were not home at the time. They were in the Ozarks on a family vacation. The family is thankful for God's sparing them personal injury but are trying to regroup as the entire roof was blown off and they have lost just about everything. (Sharon has been a long-time member of Grace Church. Myra Watson, Sharon's mother, was also a very active member until her death a few years ago.)

A Second Year of Super Kids Club Programming Begins for Interfaith and Latinas in Action

Interfaith Health Service, in collaboration with the Douglas County Health Department, began our second official Super Kids Club program this month! The program, designed for children ages 5-16, has a focus on nutritional education, physical activity, self-esteem enhancement and team work.

One week before the program began, we were blessed in hearing from Maria, one of our faithful participants, that she would be able to help out with our morning program. Maria's children both attended last year's Super Kids Club and they are also attending this year's program. Gaby, Gema and I are thrilled that our prayers for additional assistance were answered, as our program has grown and is well attended. Maria is already an asset to the program, providing organizational skills, gentle leadership and energy. Some morning activities have included: soccer, relay races, parts of the body recognition games and water balloon races.

Some of Interfaith's evening Super Kids Club activities have included bingo, soccer, field trips to the local park, and playing 2 new games that I either invented OR reconstructed from my teen years (it is getting harder to remember that far back). The first, called "Outer Space Tag", involves throwing a tennis ball, catching it and tagging team members. The second is called "Elimination" and also involves teams, catch and a group effort to stay clear of the soccer ball. The participants seem to really enjoy both of these games and ask for them every evening when we have finished our regular educational activities. It is nice to see the children both engaged in activity and having a blast playing games with each other.

Please keep our Latinas in Action program and the Super Kids Program in your prayers as we enter in to our summer schedule.

With thanks,

What Kids Say!

While working for an organization that delivers lunches to elderly shut-ins, I used to take my 4-year-old daughter on my afternoon rounds. She was unfailingly intrigued by the various appliances of old age, particularly the canes, walkers, and wheelchairs. One day I found her staring at a pair of false teeth soaking in a glass. As I braced myself for the inevitable barrage of questions, she merely turned and whispered, "The tooth fairy will never believe this!"

It was the end of the day when I parked my police van in front of the station. As I gathered my equipment, my K-9 partner, Jake, was barking, and I saw a little boy staring in at me. "Is that a dog you got back there?" he asked. "It sure is", I replied. Puzzled, the boy looked at me and then towards the back of the van. Finally he said, "What'd he do?"

Two Quotes by Dave Barry

Listen up, Tiger Woods!

"I like golf because you can be really terrible at it and still not look much dorkier than anybody else."

"Although golf was originally restricted to wealthy, overweight Protestants, today it's open to anybody who owns hideous clothing."

From the Editor

Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

This hymn was written by a woman named Charlotte Elliott who was born in 1789 in England. For the first 30 years, her life was normal. Charlotte was bright and vivacious, earning the nickname of “Carefree Charlotte.” She had many talents including painting portraits and writing humorous verse.

Then illness struck. Her illness was described as overpowering weakness, sluggishness and exhaustion day after day. She could not easily get out of bed. Her mood became despondent and depressed. She became bitter towards God for what He had allowed to happen to her. Her father, desperate to bring emotional health back to his daughter, invited Dr. Caesar Malan, a Swiss minister, evangelist, and musician to the Elliott home to help Charlotte regain confidence and faith. Charlotte lashed out at the minister, spouting her bitterness regarding her situation. Dr. Malan spoke plainly to her, telling her that holding on to her anger had made her sour and resentful. Charlotte’s heart responded and, unburdening all of her feelings, she asked the minister how to find peace and joy. His response was to “Come as you are to the Lamb of God...who takes away the sins of the world...bring your fears, hate, temper, and pride and He will give great love in their place. She would be “...welcomed and relieved.” It was a life changing experience. Charlotte became a changed person. During her lifetime, she wrote 150 hymns. The hymn, “Just as I Am,” was described by her as an “autobiography” and has become one of her most popular hymns.

In one of my devotional times, a phrase jumped off the page of the book. I was startled by it because it was a phrase I seldom thought about. “Exactly as I am.” Whenever I am reading and that happens, I have discovered it is something that God wants to talk to me about.

I had been fretting about my imperfections and feeling useless to God because of them. I know that this is a lie whispered in my ear by Satan to keep me away from thinking on the truth but, feeling frustrated and despondent, I struggled against listening to it and failed to see the truth that God has been offering to me! Accepted “Exactly as I am!” “Tossed about, With many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings and fears within, without.”

I fight feelings of hopelessness and helplessness when I see the devastation of all the disasters here in the Midwest and around the world. I am frightened by what may happen with the coming economic situation regarding my family and friends. I am angry at the twisting of justice and righteousness to fit current popular perceptions. I want to lash out or run and hide. Neither is the correct response. God is willing to welcome, pardon the foul sins of my life and cleanse me. He wants to take these emotions from me!

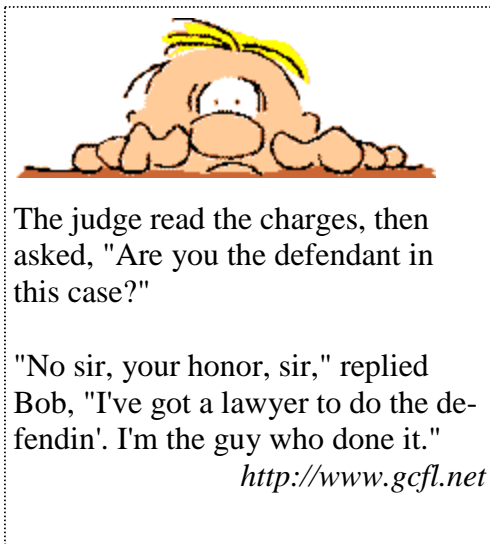

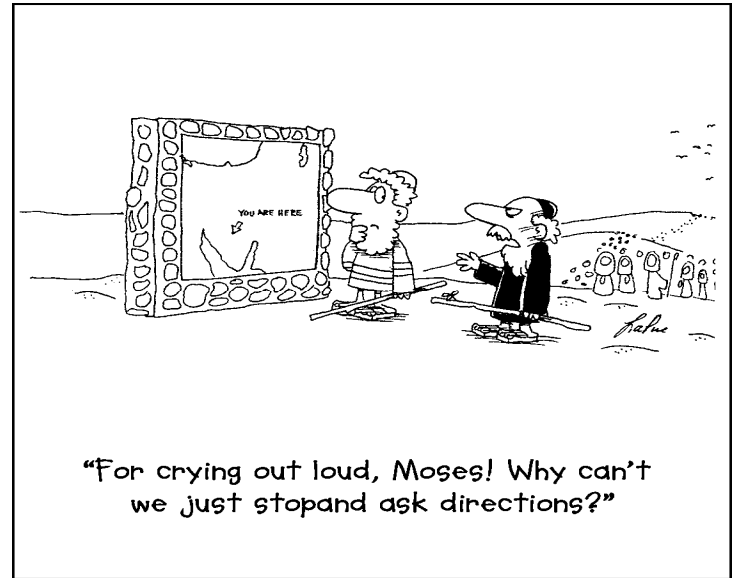

Examine your life, either during your quiet time with God or during confession in worship on Sundays. What do you need to release? 1 John 1:9 says, “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” Don’t be afraid. He is waiting.

Just as I am, I come, I come.
