The regular meeting of the Council was held on December 11th. The Council members shared their prayer concerns: We pray for the continued recovery of those close to us; Vicki's friend Gwen Grady as she deals with her terminal cancer, as well as her friend Harold Sharp dealing with the same. We pray for her brother in law, Ron Hansen with his loss of vision and continued health struggles. We pray for David and the healing of his shingles, and for his mother, Gertrude Hufford awaiting two root canals. We pray for David's sister, Mary Vondra, for her second jaw surgery. We pray for the healing of Ken Hilmer and his ongoing health issues, for June's sister Rose who was recently diagnosed with kidney cancer. We pray for Sarah's boss's wife Julie, as she continues to undergo treatments for breast cancer as well as healing from surgery. We pray for Greg's coworker, Bob Mello, who was recently hit by a van. We pray for those traveling during the holiday season, troops away from their families, and those on the East Coast struggling with rebuilding efforts. We pray for continued guidance and communication with both our council and the council of Bethel Lutheran, as well as for all of the potential changes for both ministries.

Pastor led devotions from Psalm 84:3 and Hebrews 4:9. The first reminds us that even the most helpless and least significant of us is treasured by God. The second reminds us to slow down and share our souls with God.

Visions for Ministry: We continued to ponder and discuss the significance of our discussions with Bethel. We spoke of the changes we'd have to make as well as the positive relationships we would obtain. While this may not necessarily be a huge change for our congregation, it may indeed be a significant change for Bethel. We recognize that it would certainly be a huge change for our Pastor, and we do not intend to take any of it lightly. We encourage others to voice their concerns and their thoughts with us, as we continue down this uncertain, yet hopeful path.

Reports were received from the Financial Secretary and the Treasurer. Please give generously as we conclude 2012.

Christian Education: No new report.

Evangelism/Outreach: Matt Kong is working diligently with the Sudanese young.

Finance: A budget meeting will be scheduled shortly after the New Year.

Property: Pastor met with our Attorneys. Both they and the contractor believe that we have a positive chance with our Church Mutual claim. Motors on the downstairs furnaces need to be replaced.

Service/Social Ministry: Lutheran Volunteer Corp application needs to be submitted by March 1. Our thoughts are of jointly applying for the next season with Bethel.

Continued.....

Support/Stewardship: New envelopes will be available beginning Sunday, December 16th.

Worship: We are enjoying our different Advent Dialogue. Our Christmas Eve service will be set at 5 p.m. again this year.

Unfinished Business: No new report.

New Business: Nominating Committee assembling for 3 open positions on the council. Samantha, Carolyn, and Greg will all be leaving. Thank you for your service!

Announcements: Our next council will be meeting on the 15th of January. We will hold our Annual Meeting on January 27th. Pastor Houfek & Pastor Laaker will be exchanging worship leadership in the congregations on Jan 6th. Let's remain in thoughtful prayer over the entire situation. Greg will bring treats for our January meeting.

All chairpersons from each committee and organization should have their annual report summary in by January 13, 2013. Please try to have your reports in on time so that the reports can be put together for distribution on Sunday, January 20.

Do you have a new recipe you want to try out? Or a favorite one to share? The potluck lunch will be held on Sunday, January 27, 2013 following worship service prior to the Annual Meeting. Plates, silverware, and drinks will be provided. Please plan to attend this important meeting.

Congregational Meeting

Lisa Sharon Harper wrote in the most recent Sojourners magazine, "In the dark days of Advent, we wonder when the birth pangs will end: Will light break into the darkest corners of our hearts, our families, our lives? Will God - can God - take the twisted sinew of our warped world and redeem it? Will we - can we - hold on through the night? Can we trust that light to come?"

These words ring true as we recoil from yet another massacre of innocents, the killings of twenty kindergarten children at Sandy Hook Elementary school in Newtown, Connecticut. This has become a much too common experience for us, yet we are numb with shock and grief.

This brings to mind the experience of the residents of Bethlehem as they faced the wrath of King Herod and the massacre of innocents following the visit of the visitors from Persia.

How do we make sense of these coinciding events? Do we cry out and ask why God, why this carnage at Christmas? Do we cry out with the prophet of old, "Oh that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears!" We do not understand. Why Lord? We plead for answers.

In the weeping and mourning, Lord may we feel your eternal presence, and may we know your comforting Spirit covering us as a warm blanket of peace. In the name of Jesus Christ, who suffered for us and who now suffers with us, may we find the peace that passes all understanding.

We celebrate the amazing gift of God coming among us as we welcome the newborn Christ on Christmas. This amazing gift comes to shine light into the darkest corners of our hearts, families and lives.

I hope you will come and worship the newborn king as we gather to celebrate on Christmas Eve at 5 pm.

Wishing you the joy of Christ in Christmas!

Pastor Laaker

Miracles abound. They are all around us. They surround us every day, but somehow they don't astound us.

The fact is they are too common, so we forget to be amazed and attend with glazed attention that which really should confound us:

And you.****And me.*

Hello all!

Seems like the weeks fly by with how soon I write these pieces. Here's a recap of what's been going on in the meantime:

Indoor activities have commenced! Just last Sunday everyone participated in a vigorous game of dodge ball. Both teams had their share of wins and losses on this day, but everyone had a fun time.

The jump ropes I've made with Bob's help have turned out very well. As of this writing I have two in my possession. Hopefully they live up to repeated use. If so, I may have to hold a contest to find out who is the best jump roper.

With the upcoming holidays this month, I've also had the children make Christmas crafts. You may have noticed them on the window. There are an assortment of elves, snowmen, and sometimes a combination of both!

I'd also like to thank you for the holiday gift. It was very thoughtful and I appreciate it very much! (I expect I'll pick up a more seasonally appropriate hat or a pair of nice warm socks.)

I'll be seeing family for the holidays in Northern California, riding the California Zephyr, which I'm super stoked about. I've never taken the train in the states before and I expect the views to be spectacular.

Happy Holidays!

Matt

A Happy New Year recipe

"Take 12 fine, full-grown months; see that these are thoroughly free from old memories of bitterness, rancor and hate; cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all specks of pettiness and littleness; in short, see that these months are freed from all the past – have them fresh and clean as when they first came from the great storehouse of Time. Cut these months into 30 or 31 equal parts. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time (so many persons spoil the entire lot this way) but prepare one day at a time. "Into each day put equal parts of faith, patience, courage, work (some people omit this ingredient and so spoil the flavor of the rest), hope, fidelity, liberality, kindness, rest, prayer, meditation, and one well selected resolution. Put in about one teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of folly, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor."

I am a Christian

When I say that “I am a Christian,”
I am not shouting that “I am clean living” I’m whispering “I was lost, but now I’m found and forgiven.”

When I say that “I am a Christian,”
I don’t speak of this with pride. I’m confessing that I stumble and need Christ to be my guide.

When I say that “I am a Christian,”
I’m not trying to be strong. I’m professing that I’m weak and need God’s strength to carry on.

When I say that “I am a Christian,”
I’m not bragging of success. I’m admitting I have failed and need God to clean my mess.

When I say that “I am a Christian,”
I’m not claiming to be perfect. My flaws are far too visible, but God believes I am worth it.

When I say that “I am a Christian,”
I still feel the sting of pain. I have my share of heartaches, so I call upon His name.

When I say that “I am a Christian,”
I’m not holier than thou. I’m just a simple sinner who received God’s good grace, somehow!

Interfaith Hosts Mobile Clinic

Interfaith Health Service and Families in Action was pleased to assist students from Methodist College of Nursing, faculty and HIS Board member Dr. Susie Ward, RN/BSN, in providing mobile clinic outreach again this Fall (please see accompanying photograph of students with Dr. Ward).

Eight amazing students nursing from Methodist College took part in assisting Families in Action women, men and youth in providing free flu shots, blood pressure checks, glucose checks and body mass index readings. Over 100 families took part in the evening's offerings in South Omaha.

We are grateful to Dr. Ward, Methodist College and the students for truly immersing themselves in the experience of getting to know our participants and families. Students were able to see our exercise and educational activities first-hand, and shared that their experience with Families in Action provided a wonderful way to learn about the community in South Omaha.

We look forward to the next activity with Methodist College in the Spring.

A man feared his wife wasn't hearing as well as she used to, and he thought she might need a hearing aid. Not quite sure how to approach her, he called the family doctor to discuss the problem. The doctor told him there was a simple informal test the husband could perform to give the doctor a better idea about her hearing loss.

"Here's what you do," said the doctor, "stand about 40 feet away from her, and in a normal conversational speaking tone, see if she hears you. If not, go to 30 feet, then 20 feet, and so on until you get a response."

That evening his wife was in the kitchen cooking dinner. He said to himself, "I'm about 40 feet away, let's see what happens." Then in a normal tone he asked, "Honey, what's for dinner?" No response. So the husband moved closer to the kitchen, about 30 feet from his wife and repeated, "Honey, what's for dinner?" Still no response. Next he moved into the dining room, where he was about 20 feet from his wife and asked, "Honey, what's for dinner?" Again no response. So he walked up to the kitchen door, about 10 feet away: "Honey, what's for dinner?" Again there was no response. So he walked right up behind her: "Honey, what's for dinner?"

"FRED, FOR THE FIFTH TIME, CHICKEN!" she shouted.

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,
The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,

To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among brothers and sisters,

How to keep warm in church:

- Rush to the front of the sanctuary. That will warm you up, and you'll avoid the draft in the back.
- Invite your neighbors and friends, and sit 12 people to a pew.
- Seat yourself near the pulpit. Much hot air is emitted from that area.
- Wear thermal underwear (in the appropriate liturgical colors, of course).
- Wait for an unfamiliar hymn – and then watch the sparks fly!
