Officers Serving the Congregation but not on Council:

Financial Secretary: Janet Hula Treasurer: Margie Sutej

The regular meeting of the Council was held on June 8. The Council members shared their prayer concerns: We pray for Sandy Fitzgerald, who is battling brain cancer; we pray for Mickey Andersen, who is struggling with health concerns; we pray for Amy Johnson as she struggles with an infection along with brain cancer; we pray for Kent Cattlett as he continues his treatments for lung cancer; we pray for Kevin Courtney, as he is receiving treatments for colon cancer; we pray for Barbara Nelson, as she recovers from her stroke, and for Barbara Narducci, as she recovers from a fall; we pray for our Grace shut-ins; we pray for Gwen Grady as she has recently been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer; we pray for the “recovery” of the oil spill disaster as it has presented many hazardous problems; we pray for Diane Webb, as she is having a knee replacement; we pray for the safety of everyone as they travel for reunions, that they will be vigilant of the weather conditions; we pray for Bobby, as he has had some teeth removed and tests done; we pray for the safety of police, patrol officers and our armed service people as they protect cities and fight for our freedom; and we pray for a successful year for Vacation Bible School and the Kids at Work programs at Grace. We are so blessed to have good leaders and helpers to make these programs possible.

Devotions were led by Pastor Laaker reading the selected verses of Jeremiah 50:5 and 2 Corinthians 3:4, 6 from the “Daily Texts.” These verses remind us that we have a Gracious God, who is willing to “take us back” without any reservations when we are on the wrong path. Through Jesus Christ, God’s love is shared and filled with mercy and compassion.

Visions for Ministry: The Council continued their conversation about “the Life of the Congregation.” On June 27th, after our regular worship service, the Council will be engaging in conversation with the congregational members about their concerns within the community. Elyse Johnson, from OTOC will be giving direction for the conversation.

Reports were received from the Financial Secretary and the Treasurer. Please continue to give generously.

Christian Education: Vacation Bible School will run from June 21-25.

Evangelism/Outreach: Habitat will dedicate a house that a Sudanese family will receive on June 19th. There will be a large motivational meeting at the Qwest Center on June 21.

Finance: The Council ratified the Disney Endowment allocations. The Lutheran Volunteer position is moving forward. This position will be shared with St. Luke’s and finances will be shared accordingly.

Property: The rainstorms in the area recently caused some rising water in the doorways and the tower. The Church organ also “blew” a resistor due to the storms, causing no organ music for the June 6th worship service.

Service/Social Ministry: The Douglas County Voting Commission sent a thank-you note with appreciation for Grace Church serving as an election site. The Neighbors South Habitat Coalition begins its 12th home building on Friday, June 18.

Support/Stewardship: The fall stewardship drive material will be entitled, “Faithful Stewards of God’s Infinite Grace.”

Worship: No new report.

Unfinished Business: Pastor Laaker and David Hufford attended the Synod Assembly in Grand Island on June 4-5 and reported that it was an enjoyable experience.

New Business: None.

Announcements: Carolyn Matson will bring treats and lead prayer for our July Council meeting. There will be a Prayer Service Wednesday, June 16th.

I find myself conflicted. Today, as I write this, one of our Nebraska communities is voting to enact a city ordinance in an effort to address some of its residents concerns on immigration policies. I am conflicted because I too want some action on comprehensive immigration reform but I do not think it is best to do this on a city by city basis.

I am also conflicted because I am fully convinced that all people are made in the image of God. To me, this means that our current societal movement that labels certain people as “illegal” leads us to stereotypes and actions that diminish this understanding of all being made in the image of God.

I am also conflicted because my faith calls me to love, welcome, and show compassion for the stranger among us (Deuteronomy 10:18-19, Leviticus 19:33-34, Matthew 25:31-46). The current conversation within our communities seems to alienate me from those who are different from me and set up good or bad categories.

I have been looking at my family history recently and find that my great grand parents came to this country as strangers. They could not speak the language but they found welcome. My grandfather moved from eastern Indiana to western Nebraska and homesteaded on land that once was occupied only by our Native American brothers and sisters. If my extended family found welcome in those days, then I believe I must act with the same kind of welcome today.

Therefore, I agree with a coalition of Christian organizations, Christians for Comprehensive Immigration Reform (CCIR), call for fair and humane immigration reform to be enacted by Congress this year.

The policy principles espoused by CCIR are as follows:

- We call for enforcement initiatives that are consistent with humanitarian values.
- We advocate for much-needed reforms in our family-based immigration system that reduces waiting times for separated families to be reunited.
- We call for establishment of a process for all immigrant workers and their families already in the U.S. to earn citizenship upon satisfaction of specific criteria.
- We encourage an expansion of legal avenues for workers and families to enter our country and work in a safe and legal manner with their rights and due process fully protected.
- We call for solutions to address the root causes of migration, such as economic disparities between sending and receiving nations.

I would hope that we might work to change the current conversation and move toward positive solutions that recognize the image of God in all of us.

Spotlight on Daisy, Interfaith's Amigos in Action Participant

This month, I asked Daisy, one of our Amigos in Action participants, if she would be interviewed for our feature story. She and her mom agreed that it was a great idea. Daisy, her mom and brother have been taking part in Interfaith's Latinas in Action and Artists in Action programs for three years.

Daisy just completed 8th grade, graduating with honors, and will be attending South High School this fall. She is both nervous and excited about attending such a big school. One highlight of her summer has been attending South's Project Jump Start each morning. The program is designed as a two week orientation to help freshman get to know some of their classmates, teachers, course offerings and build-ins before high school begins. Daisy says she is glad that Maria and Michelle, also Amigos in Action participants, are also Jump Start participants because seeing familiar faces and friends makes her more comfortable.

Some highlights of Daisy's interview are included below:

Hobbies: Listening to music, playing music, and reading.

Values: Family, education, God.

Subjects she is most excited about taking in high school: Music, math, science.

Talents: Sense of humor, 2nd chair violinist, good friend to others.

Why she enjoys having a younger brother: He can be sweet at times, for example, he gave me his own lollipop because he saw that I didn't have one.

Current goals: Graduate high school with honors and go to law school.

Highlight of the past year: Driving with her family to Disneyworld for a family vacation.

Books she is currently reading: Just finished Percy Jackson book 2 and will start reading books 3 and 4 this week.

Nickname in Amigos in Action: Rocket Foot (referring to her amazing ability to score soccer goals from mid field and her shooting power!)

Enjoys Amigos in Action: Because it is a chance to see her friends, play sports and games and is a fun place to spend her Friday evenings.

Please keep Daisy, her mom and family and all of our Amigos in Action participants in your prayers as they enjoy their summer and get ready for new academic challenges in the Fall.

Kids At Work 2010

Kids At Work is going strong with our third week now complete. Kids enrolled this year are:

| | | | |
|------------------------|------------------------|---------------------------|---------------------|
| Bradley Collett | Parsila Dike | Daniel Dole | Mesha Dole |
| Joshua Faya | Sunday Faya | Bianca Fredrickson | |
| Brisa Granillo | Victor Granillo | Nowa Keita | Tenyan Kora |
| Sherif Lado | Sonia Lado | Estir Lewa | Solomon Lewa |
| Telly Mounto | Esahia Nyiwe | Luis Perez | Andrea Spahr |
| Danaka Yale | Mathew Yalle | Rebecca Yalle | |

Some of this summer's special volunteer team leaders are:

| | | |
|--------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------|
| Julia Fredrickson | Eva Martin | Regina Ivo |
| Nick Fredrickson | Samantha Trejo | Allisia Fredrickson |
| Benhi Khabeb | Ernie Olson | Carolyn Matson |

It's not too late to volunteer and have some fun this summer!

This year Kids At Work is going to the following work sites:

Cristo Rey: The youth stock the food pantry, clean the sanctuary and any rooms needed, the youth have helped Pastor Liz Conner with her flower garden with weed patrol.

Lutheran Home: The youth interact with residents, such as passing out magazines, watering plants in residents rooms, walking the hall offers, folding laundry and painting finger nails!

Precious Memories: The youth help with the younger kids whether providing a special friend for the morning, playing, coloring or reading with a group of kids, putting away donated food supplies and helping with lunch time meal preparations.

Grace Lutheran: The youth will be helping out with special projects such as flyer distribution for Vacation Bible School, Newsletter Assembly, and discovering little corners in the building that need special attention.

The youth have picked up litter in the neighborhood, on the first workday six big trash bags were collected! Three lucky youths found money in the litter, contrary to some exaggerations; I did not plant any money that was found!

Kids At Work is exploding with youth participation and beginning on Tuesday, July 6th, the youth with assist in picking produce from a community garden in a new partnership with Kountze Memorial Lutheran Church. We anticipate working in this new site with much enthusiasm.
